

January 2007 Scholarships and Awards

Chase Youth Awards

Deadline: January 31, 2007

Do you know a deserving youth whom has contributed in one of the following categories; citizenship, courage, diversity, personal achievement, community service, creativity or leadership? Then now is the time to nominate them for the Chase Youth Awards.

Applications are available at www.chaseyouth.org

Best Buy Scholarship

Deadline: February 15, 2007

This scholarship rewards seniors with good grades who give back to their community.

Applications are available at BestBuy.com/scholarships

Inland Power and Light Excellence Award

Deadline: April 13, 2007

Open to graduating seniors who are active IP&L members or children of members.

Applications are available at www.inlandpower.com

Inland Northwest Community Foundation

Deadline: varying dates

A variety of scholarships are available for graduating seniors. Make sure that you meet the scholarship criteria. For a complete listing visit www.inwcomfound.org/scholarships/index.xpl

Robert J. Handy Memorial/ Washington State School Retires' Foundation Scholarships

Deadline: March 9, 2007

Open to graduating seniors planning a career in the educational field. Criteria includes; excellence of moral character, qualities of leadership, seriousness of purpose, qualities of citizenship, broadness of outlook and scholastic achievement. Applications are available online at www.wssra.org or contact Deb. Mail applications to Marilyn J. Shaw, E-7 District Representative, W 1223 Riverside Avenue #402, Spokane, WA 99201-1118.

2007 Harry Kennedy Memorial Scholarship/ Greater Spokane Substance Abuse Council (GSSAC)

Deadline: March 16, 2007

Open to graduating seniors who submit an essay highlighting why you have chosen to be drug free. The winner will also give a 3-5 minute oral presentation to the GSSAC Board.

The application is available online at www.gssacpreventioncenter.com